General Instructions for Preparing and Filing Articles of Incorporation

1. Articles must be drafted on plain bond paper; do not use letterhead paper. Letter sized and legal paper are both acceptable.
2. Submit two (2) originally signed sets of articles. (For non-profit corporations and cooperative associations, two (2) sets originally signed and notarized.) DO NOT SIGN ARTICLES THROUGH CARBON PAPER.
3. In articles, state the specific purposes the corporation will pursue. In the District of Columbia, general purposes (such as "any lawful purpose") are not acceptable.
4. The registered agent of the corporation must be either
 - (1) an individual person who resides in the District of Columbia (a business office does not qualify as residency), or
 - (2) another corporation which has the authority in its own articles to act as a registered agent in the District of Columbia.
 - (3) A letter of consent from the registered agent must be attached to articles.
5. The registered office can never be a post office box.
6. For other specific requirements of articles of incorporation, you should review the particular statute under which you are incorporating:

Business Corporations	D.C. Code, Title 29, Chapter 3
Non-Profit Corporations	D.C. Code, Title 29, Chapter 5
Professional Corporations	D.C. Code, Title 29, Chapter 6
Cooperative Associations	D.C. Code, Title 29, Chapter 11

All references are to the 1981 edition of the District of Columbia Code. Reading copies of the Code are available at all branches of the D.C. Library.
